

Beginning the Intergenerational Journey

April 22, 2017 at Franklin College

Schedule:

Registration—9:30 a.m.

Workshop—10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

What if you could become a church where all generations interact regularly and grow together in their faith?

To begin that journey, you'll want to sign up for "Beginning the Intergenerational Journey".

- Discover what the Bible says about church life
- Understand the unique characteristics among the generations in your church
- Discover how you can make your current church events truly intergenerational
- Prepare your leadership and congregation to be intentionally intergenerational

This four-hour, interactive workshop will help you think and plan intergenerationally. You will walk away with hands-on resources that you can use immediately as well as sources you can explore.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

- Plan to bring a group. If possible, include individuals from multiple generations, ages 18 and above.
- Pastors will receive a $25.00 rebate after attending the workshop.

Presenters:

Phyllis Goodyear

(Resource Minister, ABC Indiana & Kentucky)

Jan Goodyear

(Church Leadership Strategist, ABC Greater Indianapolis)

This workshop is sponsored by the American Baptist Churches of Indiana & Kentucky and Greater Indianapolis, and is made possible by your church's giving to Region Ministry through United Mission and Region offerings.
