PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS - SR ADULT DAY

Julia Moffitt is an Emmy award-winning anchor and reporter. She has been honored for excellence in reporting by the Associated Press, and the Society of Professional Journalists.

She has also been honored by Indianapolis Woman Magazine as a finalist for the people's choice award for best local female TV news anchor.

Julia has helped wake up central Indiana for the last nine years, becoming part of the Sunrise team Monday through Friday five years ago.

She joined Channel 13 news in 1999, coming to WTHR from WANE-TV15 in Fort Wayne, Indiana, where she anchored the #1 rated Noon and 5 p.m. weekday newscasts.

Prior to her stint at WANE, Julia served as a 6 and 11 p.m. weeknight anchor for WENY TV36, the ABC affiliate in Elmira, New York.

Julia is a Hoosier. She grew up in Lebanon and graduated from Indiana State University with a B.S. in Communications.

Julia and her husband have two children.

Special Music: Fiddlesticks, Fiddlin' fun for all. Fiddlesticks is a performing string ensemble, middle school to high school age, who love to share the joy of fiddles, popular and other family-friendly music.

Indiana Canine Assistant Network.

As the only ACCREDITED service dog training program in Indiana, ICAN has brought together dogs, offenders, and people living with disabilities to provide hope for more enriched and independent living. One inmate at the Pendleton Correctional Facility said: "I love my job! How many guys in prison can say that they get to lay on the floor and play with puppies!"

CEDARS ACTIVITY CENTER 1383 E COUNTY RD 75 N., LEBANON, IN 46052

The best way to get to East Washington Street is to exit Interstate 65 at exit 139. This places you on State Rd. 39 and takes you into Lebanon. If you are heading North go right off exit and heading South go left off exit. Take 39 into Lebanon and turn right at 3rd stop light, onto East Washington Street. This road will take you past the church building. Proceed 1.5 miles to the Cedars Activity Center on the right. Landmarks will be roads such as Park, Grant, and John Bart Roads and finally Oak Hill Cemetery.

Please PRINT legibly names of all individuals included in this reservation so nametags can be created. Thanks!
